

What students thought about the YPCS:

"Thank you for sharing music with us. The music was like an angel coming out of the sky!"

- Mina

"This is the best concert I have ever been to! I wish I could see it again."

- Ty

"Thank you for your performance, it was wonderful. You guys inspire me not to give up on my violin lesson because your music was so awesome and I want to be just like you."

- MuHtee

James
Thank you lincoln
Symphony Orchestra

Alisia
It was wonderful!
Mrs. Bodrich Hunter and
Soraya Alessandro
Hailey Kylee Sosiah Nyamea
Marcilia Julián Jeffrey Sande
Skyler

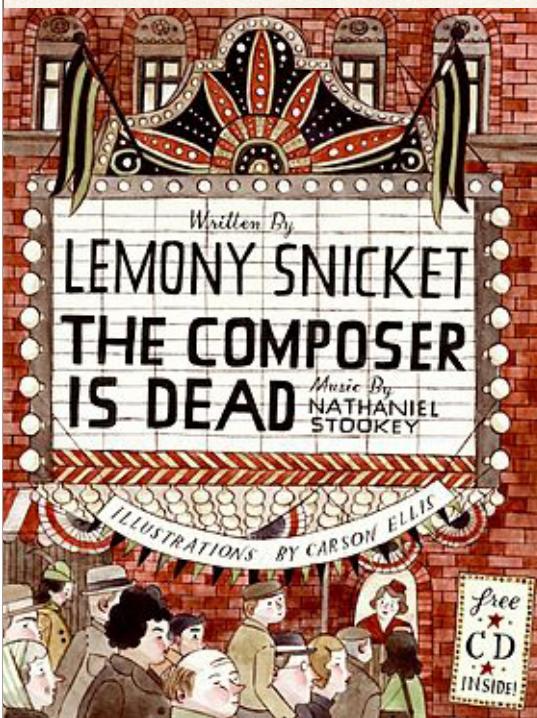

LINCOLN'S SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
EDWARD POLOCHICK, MUSIC DIRECTOR

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT

Lemony Snicket's The Composer is Dead

featuring William Shomos, actor

February 20, 2020 | 11am

What students thought about the YPCS:

"Thank you for sharing music with us. The music was like an angel coming out of the sky!"

- Mina

"This is the best concert I have ever been to! I wish I could see it again."

- Ty

"Thank you for your performance, it was wonderful. You guys inspire me not to give up on my violin lesson because your music was so awesome and I want to be just like you."

- MuHtee

James
Thank you lincoln
Symphony Orchestra

Alisia
It was wonderful!
Mrs. Bodrich Hunter and
Soraya Alessandro
Hailey Kylee Sosiah Nyamea
Marcilia Julián Jeffrey Sande
Skyler

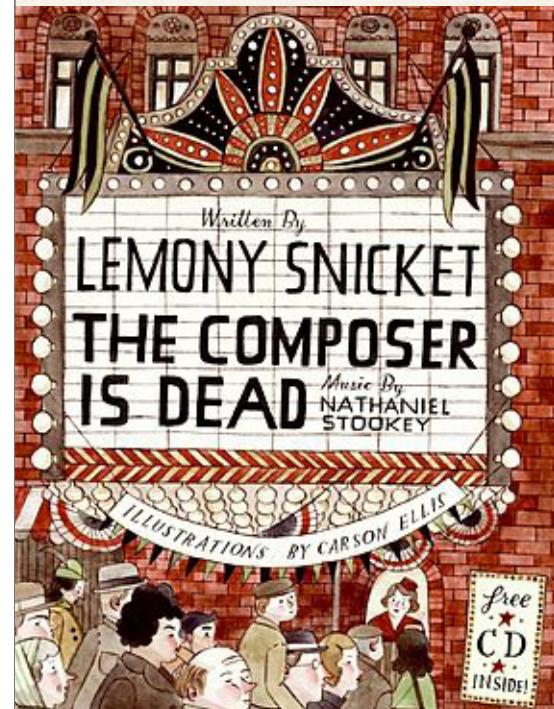

LINCOLN'S SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
EDWARD POLOCHICK, MUSIC DIRECTOR

YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT

Lemony Snicket's The Composer is Dead

featuring William Shomos, actor

February 20, 2020 | 11am

2020 YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT

Thursday, February 20, 2020 | 11:00AM*

Lied Center for Performing Arts

What is a YPC?

The YPC is an annual children's concert offered to all 4th-6th graders in Lincoln & surrounding areas. This unique opportunity consists of a 45-minute interactive concert at the Lied Center for Performing Arts in Lincoln, and was attended last year by over 5,000 students and teachers.

How can I best prepare my students for the concert?

Detailed repertoire information and lesson plans are available for download at
<https://lincolnsymphony.com/young-peoples-concerts/>

What can I do about transportation?

School Bus Grants are available through a request form from the Nebraska Arts Council. Grants are first-come, first-served, so apply early at [www.artscouncil.nebraska.gov](http://arts council.nebraska.gov).

How much does it cost to attend?

Thanks to generous support from many individuals and organizations, the charge is only a $3 handling fee per person.

2020 YOUNG PEOPLE'S CONCERT

Thursday, February 20, 2020 | 11:00AM*

Lied Center for Performing Arts

What is a YPC?

The YPC is an annual children's concert offered to all 4th-6th graders in Lincoln & surrounding areas. This unique opportunity consists of a 45-minute interactive concert at the Lied Center for Performing Arts in Lincoln, and was attended last year by over 5,000 students and teachers.

How can I best prepare my students for the concert?

Detailed repertoire information and lesson plans are available for download at
<https://lincolnsymphony.com/young-peoples-concerts/>

What can I do about transportation?

School Bus Grants are available through a request form from the Nebraska Arts Council. Grants are first-come, first-served, so apply early at [www.artscouncil.nebraska.gov](http://arts council.nebraska.gov).

How much does it cost to attend?

Thanks to generous support from many individuals and organizations, the charge is only a $3 handling fee per person.

The Composer is Dead

William Shomos, actor

Edward Polochick, conductor

Author Lemony Snicket, best known for the popular Series of Unfortunate Events, delivers a musical mystery, The Composer is Dead, with music by Nathaniel Stookey. Follow along as the Inspector, actor William Shomos, investigates with members of the orchestra in order to find out whodunnit!