As we embark on our 2021-22 season, the health and safety of our musicians and audience members is of the highest priority, and to honor this, we may need to make changes to repertoire, artists, seating configurations, and concert dates and/or times. Every subscriber will have the opportunity to choose live-streaming instead of in-person tickets on a concert-by-concert basis, as we strive to create an environment where we can all share this art form together. Thank you for being part of our orchestra family.

SUPPORT LSO MUSICIANS

TODAY'S GIFT AMOUNT: _____ (Last year's gift: _____)

Dear LSO family,

During the 2020-21 season when we were only able to fit a small percentage of our orchestra onstage due to the constraints of physical distancing, LSO made the commitment to continue to pay every musician their full salary, even though they can't all fit onstage. Your annual fund support allows us to honor this commitment. Below are comments from a few musicians about how much this means to them:

- "LSO's commitment to and support of our family of musicians has been a cornerstone of the organization. Nothing shows this better than the incredible step that LSO has taken in paying all the musicians this year. It is such a beautiful thing - it brings tears to my eyes to think of what this means for us all."
- "Kudos to LSO (and especially to LSO's loyal donors) for making sure LSO is in a financially secure position to be able to do this. You guys blow us away."
- "During this trying and stressful time for everyone, we're so grateful for LSO's support. It is truly remarkable."
- "I LOVE this orchestra!! I am so grateful to LSO for making such an effort to keep all our musicians employed. We really appreciate it."
- "It means so much to me that our symphony family is really looking out for its musicians. In an age where arts organizations are really struggling, I love that LSO is so worried about our musicians' well-being. Thank you so much!"
- "This isn't only about compensation; it sends us a message that our community values the arts and values us and wants to see us get through this pandemic. It's been hard on us not playing together; it chips away at the essence of who we are. And when this pandemic is over, we will be bursting with joy to get on that stage and share our gifts with you."
